Speaking on the occasion. Minister said Plan Budget of the Ministry in 2016-17 is increased by more than Rs. 168 crores over 2015-16 expenditure, is a proof of government's commitment towards development of minorities. Thus, Priority focus of the government has been the development of minorities through skill development and educational empowerment.

The Ministry has given 10 crore rupees for 10 such schools to be run by AMU. For "Seekho and Kamao" against Rs. 17 crore in 2013-14, Rs. 46 crore were spent in 2014-15 and Rs. 191.96 crore in 2015-16. This marks eleven-fold increase in 2 years in funding. This helped in wider reach of registering six-fold increase in number of beneficiaries and at the same time 1.84 time increase in training support funding per beneficiary in two years (higher quality training).
